2009 Congress, a Celebration of Lincoln’s 200th Birthday

The Ohio Commandery continues to develop a tremendous 200th Birthday theme for the 2009 Congress based on the 1809 birthday of Abraham Lincoln. The Congress will be held October 9, 10, and 11, 2009 on post at the Fort Knox U.S. Military Reservation and hotel accommodations will be in the town of Radcliff, Kentucky (www.radcliff tourism.org). Radcliff is located South of Louisville.

Registration begins at noon at the Ohio Host Committee open house. The activities will start at 2:30 PM on Friday October 9th with a bus tour to the Abraham Lincoln Birthplace National Historical Site (www.lincolnbirthpalce.com). The neo-classic memorial houses an 19th century log cabin that represents Lincoln's birthplace at Hoganville, Kentucky. Following the tour a short reception with refreshments including a birthday cake will be had at the birthplace.

Upon return to Radcliff there will be a full cash bar reception that evening at the Leader's Club (formerly know as the Officer's Club) at Fort Knox followed by a full dinner where Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commissioner <http://www.lincolnbicentennial.gov/about-the-commission/default.aspx>) and Kentucky ABLC Chairman Judge Tom Turner (<http://www.kylincoln.org/>) will be present to inform the Congress on Lincoln and Kentucky. An after dinner gathering at the Ohio Commandery Host Suit will give all further time to socialize and enjoy renewed fellowship.

Continental Breakfast will be served at the hotel followed by the start of the MOLLUS and DOLLUS meetings at the Fort Knox Leader's Club with coffee and tea for our enjoyment. A noon luncheon at the Leader's Club will be followed by a tour starting with several historic films about Fort Knox and the Patton Museum. A full tour of the Patton Museum will follow. You have the opportunity to preview the Patton Museum web site at www.generalpatton.org.

Saturday evening continues with a Reception and Cash Bar at the Leader's Club followed by the Formal Black Tie or Military Uniform with Military Decorations Banquet. It is requested that those who have Civil War era attire/uniforms, please wear them as a tribute to President Lincoln and his 200th Birthday. Anyone having a birthday during the days of the Congress, are ask to please make the information know to the Ohio Commandery. After dinner the Congress will close with an Social gathering and Open House at the Ohio Commandery Host Committee Suit. Sunday is an open day for those that wish to do their own touring.

A few notables about this years' Congress is that there will be a low cost menu pricing for children attending. Also anyone having any special dietary requirements are ask to make such a request known on their registration form. Full registration forms will be included in the next issue (Summer) of the Journal. The cost of the hotel rooms are the same for 1 to 4 occupants and will be $75.05 per night, while the total registration costs for Companion and Dames attending all functions, will be $185.00.

The Ohio Commandery hopes to see a very large number of Companions, Dames, and their family members attending this year's Congress in Kentucky as a tribute to the 200th Birthday of our 16th President, Abraham Lincoln.
