Policy Statement of the SONS OF UNION VETERANS OF THE CIVIL WAR Regarding the Sale of Extra National Encampment Badges by Host Department

(November 2002)

The Host Department of a National Encampment may sell to any brother of the Order, any such extra National Encampment badges that the host Department may possess at the conclusion of the Encampment. Sales shall not be made to anyone who is not a brother of this Order. Any such extra Encampment Badges shall first be offered to those brothers in attendance at the National Encampment.

The Council of Administration may limit and/or prohibit the sale of any particular such Badge, from time to time, in its sole discretion.
