

Inauguration Day Patriotic Instruction

Brothers,

Any time a new President is sworn in it is a historic time for our country. Today Joseph Biden, the 46th President of the United States of America, was sworn into office. Some of us as Brothers voted for him, some of us as Brothers did not vote for him, but he is now the President of the United States of America, a position that by itself commands respect. I urge all Brothers to remember that regardless of who you voted for, that above everything else, red or blue, Democrat or Republican, you are all Americans. That we must treat others with the same respect and dignity we would expect ourselves to be treated with. We all have one goal in mind, and that is to better the United States of America one day at a time and I truly believe that begins with each one of us and our own actions. I once saw a quote that if you better yourself, or in this case the country, by 1% a day, in one year you will be 365% better than you were at this time last year. My challenge to all of you, each and every day, is what is your 1%? How can you make this country 1% better than it was yesterday? Focus on that, and this country will prosper for future generations.
