Oct. 1900; Reinstated 29 Oct. 1901	Annulled 25 June 1901; Sur. 1905-06	This Post had a tense coexistence with Meade Post, No. 2. Its charter was annulled in June 1901 (reportedly at the request of members of Meade Post). The annulment was reversed by order of the GAR Commander-in-Chief in Oct. 1901. According to the Oregon Daily Journal (14 May 1902), members of Gibbon Post "also are members of the Union Veterans Union." They observed Memorial Day services with the UVU, rather than with the GAR and Allied Orders, and preferred to use the UVU ritual over the GAR ritual for Memorial Day services.
