KUDOS IN ORDER

Thanks to four decades of lobbying by Mrs. Margaret Zerwekh, Lt. Alonzo H. Cushing, 4th U.S. Light Artillery, received the Medal of Honor in a White House Ceremony last November 6th. On March 24th, 94-year old Margaret was presented a Life Membership in the ASUVCW at her home in Delafield, Wis., which sits on what was once Cushing family property. Members of the Wisconsin Dept. Auxiliary and Sons were there to congratulate and thank her for her efforts.

THE SESQUICENTENNIAL DRAWS TO A CLOSE...OR DOES IT?

On June 24, 1864, Dr. Benjamin Franklin Stephenson of Petersburg, Ill., was mustered out of federal service. Three years earlier, at age 37, he had left his wife and two small children to join the Union Army. He was elected surgeon of the 14th Illinois Infantry, but another doctor was commissioned. So, he was appointed assistant surgeon of the regiment.

Governor Yates commissioned him a major for his distinguished service on the field at Shiloh and appointed him regimental surgeon. He served with the 14th through all of its campaigns, as part of the Army of the Tennessee. In addition to the Battle of Shiloh, these included the Siege of Corinth, Battle of Hatchie's Bridge and Siege of Vicksburg.

A romanticized notion that the regiment's chaplain shared not only a tent with the doctor, but the founding of the GAR is a popular myth. It's likely that the doctor talked to several about his ideas during the waning days of his service.

After mustering out, Stephenson returned to Springfield, Ill., where he worked with a couple of druggists. There, he talked up his idea for a veterans' organization with other veterans he came in contact with. Capt. John Phelps, formerly the captain of Co. B, 32nd Ill. Inf., encouraged Stephenson. He knew of a printing office run by two soldiers, who got the ritual printed. Stephenson corresponded with the Soldiers & Sailors League in St. Louis and used some of the organization's ritual.

By the time the war ended, Dr. Stephenson had many of the pieces in place, necessary to start a new fraternal order. Col. John Snyder had been the 6th Illinois Cavalry Quartermaster. After the war, he was Illinois Gov. Oglesby's military secretary.

Maj. Robert Woods had been captain in the 64th Illinois Infantry. He was publisher of the Republic and Sun newspapers and attended meetings of the Army of the Tennessee. He served as the new Order's Adjutant General.

Gen. Jules Weber, late of the 18th Illinois, had also been a regimental quartermaster. He was to serve as Chief of Staff of the fledgling organization.

Word quickly spread in southwestern Illinois. The Decatur postmaster, the newspaper printers, the Macon county treasurer, and the mayor by Decatur led the interest among area veterans. So Stephenson organized the first post there. And so, it began...the story of the Grand Army of the Republic.

OUR UNION DEFENDER'S DAY TRADITION

Pres. Lincoln's birthday was first recognized in 1866, less than a year after his death. A ceremony was held at the Capitol building with Pres. Johnson, his cabinet and other dignitaries present.

The Sons of Veterans, USA, held the first nationwide observance on February 12th, 1889. Based upon the celebration's success, CinC George B. Abbott recommended that the observance be made a feature of our Order and be provided for in the Constitution. The 1890 Nat. Encampment (1) supported the observance, (2) recommended it be called "Union Defender's Day," and (3) prescribed that the CinC issue orders providing for its observance by our Order.

CALIFORNIA & PACIFIC

Phil Sheridan Camp 4 and Dr. Mary E. Walker Aux. 52 held their 12th annual Lincoln Dinner on February 7th, at Holder's Country Inn in San José, Cal., in commemoration of President Lincoln's 206th Birthday. CC John Stolp presented historian Darlene Thorne with a certificate of appreciation for her outstanding presentation on Civil War vintage and other antique postcards.

Lincoln's birthday is legally recognized in ten states (CT, DE, IL, MN, NJ, NY, ND, PA, WA, WY). It last failed to make Federal Holiday status in 1968, when Washington's birthday observance was moved to the 3rd Monday in February. In 1971, the day was renamed Presidents' Day.

COME TO THE 2015 NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT!

The Department of the Chesapeake invites you to Richmond, Virginia, for the National Encampment of the Allied Orders of the Grand Army of the Republic. The last National Encampment in Richmond was at the end of the Centennial, so it is fitting to meet there again at the end of the Sesquicentennial. When the Sesquicentennial began, the Department hosted the first Sesquicentennial Encampment near Manassas with the theme "Stand by the Union!" Now, we close out the Sesquicentennial in Richmond with the theme "With Malice Towards None." We have booked the Omni in downtown Richmond. It is in the historic Shockoe Slip district and is close to first class dining and entertainment ventures. The hotel has 361 guest rooms, a heated indoor pool and outdoor sun deck, 24-hour dining, full service restaurant, ATM, business center, etc. Some of the Richmond area attractions:

Richmond, the Capital of the Confederacy, home of the Confederate White House and Museum of the Confederacy. This is where the Peninsula Campaign, the Overland Campaign, and Siege of Petersburg all ended and the road to Appomattox started. The City is surrounded by Civil War sites just waiting for you to explore, including: the Crater, Belle Isle, Chimborazo Medical Museum, Cold Harbor, Confederate War Memorial Chapel (with its Tiffany windows), Fort Stedman, Gains Mill, Malvern Hill, and the National Museum of the Civil War Soldier. Thomas Jefferson designed the State Capital building, built in 1788. It is home to the oldest legislative body operating in the Western Hemisphere and served as the Confederate Capital building. is on the capital grounds and served as inspiration for the Confederate Great Seal. The monument was completed in 1858 and includes at its base statues of Patrick Henry, Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Lewis, John Marshall, George Mason, and Thomas Nelson, Jr.

Belle Isle was a prison holding United States soldiers between 1862 and 1865. It was home to 30,000 POWs, where as many as 1,000 perished. To commemorate their sacrifice, the Sons of Union Veterans installed a memorial stone on the isle. In April 1864, Peter DeWitt, Assistant Surgeon in Baltimore, received a number of prisoners. He described the "great majority" of the patients as being:

"... in a semistate of nudity... laboring under such diseases as chronic diarrhea, phthisis pulmonalis, scurvy, frost bite, general debility, caused by starvation, neglect and exposure. Many of them had partially lost their reason, forgetting even the date of their capture . . . They resemble, in many respect, patients laboring under cretinism. They were filthy in the extreme, covered in vermin...nearly all were extremely emaciated; so much so that they had to be cared for even like infants."

Hollywood Cemetery is the final resting place for 18,000 Confederates; including J.E.B Stuart, Fitzhugh Lee, and Jefferson Davis. The tombs of Presidents James Monroe and John Tyler are also there. Across town is the Shockoe Cemetery, where famed U.S. spy Elizabeth Van Lew is buried. There are several U.S. National Cemeteries in the Richmond area: City Point, Cold Harbor, Fort Harrison, Seven Pines, Glendale, Richmond, and Poplar Grove (Petersburg).

Tredegar Iron Works is home to The American Civil War Center and the Richmond National Battlefield Park Visitor Center. The Civil War Center is the nation's first museum to interpret the Civil War from Union, Confederate, and African American perspectives. Tredegar is a five-building site on Richmond's canals. In 1860, the Tredegar Iron Works was the largest in the South, a fact that played a significant role in the decision to relocate the capital of the Confederacy from Montgomery, Alabama, to Richmond. Tredegar's wartime production included steam locomotives, the plating for the ironclad warship, CSS Virginia; 1,100 artillery pieces, about half of the South's total domestic production of artillery, including the development of the Brooke rifle, a giant rail-mounted siege cannon.

Richmond Slave Trail, is a walking trail tracing the history of the trade of enslaved Africans to and from Virginia. Richmond was the largest source of enslaved Africans from 1830 to 1860. The trail follows a route through the slave markets, the Reconciliation Statue, Lumpkin's Slave Jail and the Negro Burial Ground to First African Baptist Church, a center of African-American life in antebellum Richmond.

Monument Avenue is an example of the Grand America Avenue city planning style. The avenue has architecturally significant houses and churches on a tree-lined grassy mall. The avenue is home to statures memorializing Virginia Confederates Robert E. Lee, J.E.B Stuart, Thomas Jackson, Matthew Maury, and Jefferson Davis.

Tours are planned for your visit to Richmond. We have negotiated with the National Park Service for two tours, one featuring Richmond sites and the other Petersburg. The Richmond tour will depart Thursday morning and visit the Gaines Mill and Cold Harbor Battlefields. Gaines Mill (June 27, 1862) was the third of the Seven Days Battles ending the McClellan's Peninsula Campaign. It is the site of Lee's largest attack – 57,000 Confederates in six divisions. Cold Harbor (May-June 1864) was part of Grant's Overland Campaign. Grant lamented in his memoirs the he always regretted the last attack at Cold Harbor. On Thursday afternoon, the second tour will visit sites at Petersburg including the Battle of the Crater (July 30, 1864) where the Federals set off 320 kegs of black powder under the Confederate trenches. The Army of Northern Virginia was ultimately defeated at Petersburg after a 9-month struggle that included extensive trench warfare. It will be possible to take both tours. The morning tour will depart the Hotel at 8 AM, returning at noon. The afternoon tour will depart at 1 PM and return at 5 PM.

OUR ORDER WELCO

HUMBOLDT CAMP 9 ORGANIZED

The Department of Kansas has regained a foothold in southeast Kansas. Thanks to the tireless efforts of Carolyn Whitaker, who spearheaded last year's headstone dedication for Pvt. Rufus Anderson, 1st Kansas Colored Inf..

At the invitation of the Humboldt Historical Society, men interested in the Civil War met at the Humboldt Museum on March 14th to organize a Camp. All agreed that naming the Camp after Humboldt's Vicksburg GAR Post 72 would not mean much to those in the area.

With guidance from DC Kent Melcher and camp organizer DJVC William E. Fischer, Jr., the Camp, consisting primarily of newly initiated Brothers, agreed on the name "Humboldt." Doing so recognizes the rich Civil War history of the town, honors all the Union men who served in this section of Kansas, and provided an identifiable "place" name. Initially, the camp will meet quarterly at the museum. Officers include: CC Eddie Henderson, SVC Randy Downey, JVC Robert Boyd, Sec. Bill Fischer, Treas. Josh Works, Council Members John Jackson, Dean Dillard, and Robbie Baker, and Chaplain Otis Crawford.

In addition to locals, Brothers have joined from Bourbon, Neosho, and Woodson Counties. Br. Conrad Fisher from Old Abe Camp 16 has joined as a dual member, as is DC Melcher.

Humboldt, founded in 1857 by German immigrants, was named for Prussian naturalist and explorer Baron Alexander von Humboldt. The town served as the county seat throughout the Civil War.

PLANTING THE ACORN ALLIED ORDERS FAMILIES

Leadership in the Allied Orders has been a family affair with many in our organizations. Efforts to bolster our ranks often begin with recruiting family members whose access is easy and lineage already proven...much easier than convincing strangers whose motives are unknown and who may need their ancestry researched. The downside: not every family member shares the same enthusiasm for the Order's work, the same dedication to the mission, or the same volunteer commitment.

However, when family members do commit, the Allied Orders win. Following an example of leadership, family members have risen to the occasion, serving at the local, Department and even the National levels.

PNP Lynne Bury, Madeline Rock, PCinC Gordon Bury, Robert & Elizabeth Rock

FAMILY OF FIRSTS

At the time of their election in 1986, as LGAR National President and SUVCW Commander-in-Chief, Lynne and Gordon Bury were the first husband and wife team from their respective organizations to serve together, as well as the youngest. Additionally, in an effort to more fully represent their ancestors, they were the first heads of the Allied Orders to appear at all functions in Civil War era uniform/clothing. Gordon also served as MOLLUS CinC from 2001-03, only the third SUVCW PCinC to do so, while Lynne served as LGAR President again in 2003-05. Lynne continues to serve as LGAR National Historian.

At the 1987 Nat. LGAR Convention, Lynne initiated Judith Rock into membership and happily installed her 25 years later as Nat. President. In 1995, Lynne's daughter Elizabeth married Judy Rock's son, Robert, and they continue the family tradition. As Elizabeth once did, granddaughter Madeline, at age 5, was the youngest LGAR Junior to participate in wreath laying ceremonies. She now serves as the youngest elected Nat. Officer as Editor of the Bugle Call. Son-in-law Robert is the Editor of the Nat. MOLLUS Historical Journal and the LGAR's accountant, while Elizabeth is the first and current Nat. Secretary for both the LGAR and DOLLUS (Dames of the Loyal Legion of the United States). Lynne is the first PNP of the LGAR to also serve as DOLLUS Nat. Pres.

MCMILLAN AND WIFE...AND MORE

Ann McMillan joined both Auxiliary and DUVCW in 1990. Her mother, Dorothy Prentice, joined at the same time. Dorothy became DUVCW NY Dept. Pres. in 1997 and Ann followed her in 2001. When Ann met Doug McMillan, she was an NPS intern in Gettysburg. Ann became PA ASUVCW Dept. Pres. in 2012 and 2013.

DC Doug McMillan joined the Sons in 2006, based on genealogy that wife Ann had done. He had been a Civil War student for almost 30 years by that time. Finding his ancestor and recovering his family history became that touchstone moment that I was suddenly connected in a very real and personal way. He was introduced to the SUVCW and jumped in with both feet.

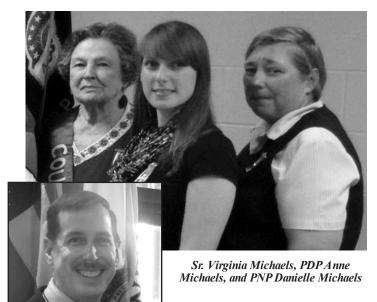

Doug's father, Paul, followed him in as did his son, Joshua. Joshua, was 7 when he became a Junior and his two daughters joined soon after, as they reached the appropriate ages. Joshua is now 16 and Gettysburg Camp 112 Junior Vice Commander. His Grandfather, Paul, is a Past Camp Commander of Camp 112 and also works as a field musician, providing Taps at many SVR memorial events. He is also a bugler with the Cumberland County Honor Guard. Doug's mother, Joyce, served several years as Jennie Wade Aux. Pres. Daughters Katelynn and

PCINC STEVE MICHAELS' FAMILY

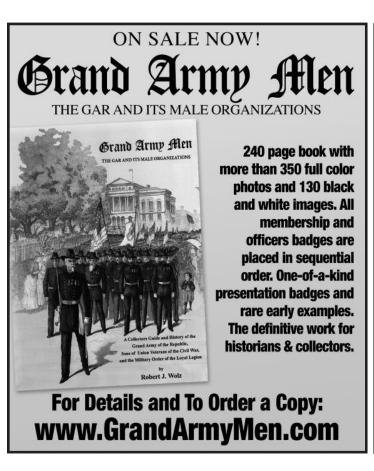

PCinC Steve Michaels joined the SUVCW as an Ohio Dept. MAL in 1993. After transferring to the Wisconsin Dept. and C.K. Pier Badger Camp 1, he encouraged his wife, PNP Danielle Michaels to join the Auxiliary. They both liked the family-friendly culture and consequently, three of their four children joined. Son Andrew joined as a Junior in 1996, serving eight years as the Camp Color Guard. When the ASUVCW reinstituted Junior membership at the 1998 National Encampment, daughter Anne was one of two girls initiated as a Junior on the spot. Allison was already a member, having joined a year earlier.

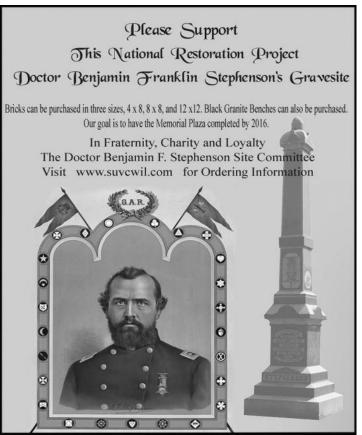

Today, there are three generations serving the Allied Orders: Steve's mother, Aux. Sr. Virginia Michaels, 86, has worked on special projects like the 2013 National Encampment. Sister-in-law Denise Oman is C.K. Pier Badger Aux. 1 President and National Patriotic Instructor. Both daughters, Anne and Allison served as Auxiliary presidents and as their Dept.'s President. Anne has served on the National Council and is National Press Correspondent. Danielle is Nat. Aux. Historian.

PDC MERLE RUDEBUSCH'S FAMILY

The Dept. of Nebraska leadership is now held by a second son who was elected. DC Phillip Rudebusch took the leadership of the Dept., which his brother Michael and his father held. All three are PDCs. He's now a Dept. Council Member. Michael retired from the Army National Guard as a SFC after 27 years of service. He served one year tour of duty in Iraq.

Arlene Rudebusch, mother and wife, is a PDP of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, 1861-1865, in Nebraska and Past Nat. Sec. of the DUVCW, and a sister in Henry Harnden Aux. 2, Dept. of Wis. Merle and Arlene's grandson, Daniel, son of Michael, joined as a Junior in the SUVCW. He is now a member of Shiloh Camp 1. Merle is also the current Dept. Sec/Treas. and GRO. He serves on the Nat. GRO Committee.

An article in the Lincoln, Nebraska, Journal Star newspaper once credited the family's patriotism and their efforts to record the gravesites of all the Civil War veterans in Nebraska.

DC Phillip was quoted as saying that he hopes people take time out to remember those who came before us. "It's carrying respect for what your ancestors gave. It is scary how society has forgotten about being patriotic – there's a lack of understanding what our own citizenship is about. You disrespect your ancestors and those who fought for your freedom if you take your citizenship for granted."

GROWING THE ORDERS

Family support is essential for any active member of the Allied Orders. This becomes even more important when a leadership role is pursued. Our Orders depend on leadership at all levels to survive, and so, maintaining a family friendly atmosphere is important. One of the side benefits of bringing one's children into the Allied Orders Family is allowing them to share in the values, the camaraderie, and work set forth by the GAR.

For younger Brothers and Sisters, it's an opportunity to serve, to fulfill goals, to gain experience managing important volunteer work, and to work for positive change within their Orders.

In a relatively small organization with many older members, seven years has allowed young women to observe how business is conducted while serving in ceremonial positions like personal aide, guide, guard and color bearer. Transferring to regular membership at age 12, some have taken on increased responsibility as Patriotic Instructor, Chaplain and Historian.

In contrast, in the much larger SUVCW, many young boys who spend eight years as a Junior, face stiff competition for leadership responsibility once they turn 14 and transfer to adult membership. Their new male contemporaries are more numerous, more active and in many cases, better prepared than they are.

Nonetheless, "planting the acorn" gives each Allied Order family the opportunity to share a love of genealogy, heritage, and patriotism. One thing's for certain: our Allied Orders Families are much richer for the contributions of these family members, who were drawn into this special culture. Will you be the one to plant the next acorn?

Life membership in the SUVCW excuses a Brother from all National per capita dues. It does not necessarily excuse him from paying Department level per capita dues or Camp level dues. The decision to levy Department per capita dues on Life Members is made by a Department Encampment. Likewise, the membership of a Camp determines if all, a portion of, or none of the dues will be required from a Life Member. More information about the SUVCW Life Membership may be found on Form 9. Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War: Help us honor the service and sacrifices of your Union Civil War Officer Ancestor

The Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States (MOLLUS) was founded on April 15, 1865. Currently, the MOLLUS has 19 State Commanderies nationwide. Hereditary Membership is available to direct male descendants (18 years and older) of a commissioned officer in the United States Army, Navy or Marines who served during the Civil War, or male descendants of a brother or sister of any such officer.

Many of the Original Companions of the MOLLUS also were members of the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR). Similarly, many the present day Hereditary Companions of the MOLLUS also are members of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War (SUVCW). As did the MOLLUS with the GAR, the MOLLUS and the SUVCW jointly sponsor patriotic and commemorative programs to honor President Abraham Lincoln and our Union soldier ancestors throughout the country.

On Dec. 27th, Lincoln Camp 10's PCC & current DC Tim P. Reese presented three new Eagle Scouts; Anthony Cellucci, Trevor Hoffman, and Ryan Kahn of BSA Troop 604 of Scotts Valley with SUVCW Eagle Scout Certificates at the Masonic Lodge in Santa Cruz, Cal.

On January 3rd, James A. Garfield Camp 1 visited Baltimore's President Street Station, one of the Civil War's earliest and historically noteworthy sites. In addition to highlighting the role of the rail station in the "Pratt Street Riot" of April 19, 1861, the visit featured an overview of many of the building's structural features and museum collection.

The Camp conducted their January business meeting inside the station and afterward, adjourned to revisit several of the museum holdings and gift shop.

On March 28th, Antietam Camp 3 conducted its 7th annual Medal of Honor ceremony at the Dunker Church on the Antietam Battlefield. Attending were representatives of two U.S. Senators, the Head of the Maryland Veterans Administration, SVCinC Eugene Mortorff, DC Robert Pollock, and various other dignitaries. This year, Camp 3 honored the 20 Union recipients, presented the Medal for action on September 17, 1862, during the Battle of Antietam. Following the ceremony, wreaths were placed at the Maryland Monument.

In conjunction with the Maryland Historical Trust, Gen. George G. Meade Camp 5 placed an historic marker, noting the role of the Annapolis and Elk Ridge Railroad in the Civil War.

The railroad, which offered a means of bypassing Baltimore to get from Philadelphia and the North in Washington, DC. The marker, which was placed in the town of Annapolis Junction, MD, was a project of Camp 5 and the Odenton Heritage Society, where the Camp regularly meets. The marker notes how the railroad allowed soldiers and materiel to come into Annapolis and link up with the B&O Railroad while avoiding the largest city in Maryland.

The Camp and the society had been in the planning stages for over a year before proposing the placement of the marker to the historical society. The marker was placed last summer and will be dedicated when road construction in the area is concluded.

NEW JERSEY

On March 21st, Col. Louis R. Francine Camp 7 sponsored a bus trip to the Gettysburg Battlefield. These trips, a long-time Camp tradition, each focus on a particular part of the battlefield, educating our Brothers and members of the general public who often attend. This year, the focus was on a unique part of the battlefield.

The first stop was the new Seminary Ridge Museum, opened in 2013. The museum not only focused on the battle, but its use as a hospital after the battle. From there we picked our Licensed Battlefield Guide Larry Korczyk, who happened to be a brother in Custer Camp 17. Br. Larry gave us an excellent tour of Benner's Hill, Culp's Hill, East Cemetery Hill and Cemetery Hill. Br. Korczyk went into great detail about the actions on the various hills, and you could get a great feel for what took

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

KINDNESS

My wife, Sonja, and I recently went to the movie "Cinderella." In the movie, Cinderella's mother taught her to "be courageous and kind." That got me thinking about kindness.

One of the principles upon which our Order was founded is Charity. When most people think of charity they think of philanthropy, but the word charity comes from the Latin "caritas" which means Christian love. Charity (virtue) is defined as love and kindness.

Proverbs 3:3 says: "Do not let kindness and truth leave you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart."

Kindness is mentioned in Galatians 5:22-23 as being one of the fruits of the Spirit: "but the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness and self control."

Kindness is illustrated in Luke 10:30-35 in the story of the Good Samaritan. The Good Samaritan showed kindness to a stranger who could not repay him. This parable illustrates that kindness requires action. In fact, kindness has been described as "love with its work clothes on."

Practice kindness. We will never know what small act of kindness will transform someone's life.

Yours in Fraternity, Charity, and Loyalty,

Chaplain Dan

COLLECTING

GAR / SONS OF VETERANS SILVER SOUVENIR SPOONS

By PDC Robert Wolz, National Historian

Examples of two different GAR spoon handles.

Silver spoon collections were extremely popular among the Victorians. Almost every national encampment from the 1890s to the teens had silver souvenir spoons. The handle might feature a musket or the Grand Army of the Republic badge itself while the bowl of the spoon might feature important buildings from the Encampment city or perhaps the local Civil War monument. As these were souvenirs, several patterns for the same year can be found. Issued price in the 1890's was 50 cents to one dollar for silver plated and $1.50 to $2 for sterling silver. Additional designs might exist for the Women's Relief Corps and the Sons of Veterans. In addition to a GAR Encampment, local events like the dedication of a Civil War monument or the death of a popular general might result in additional spoon designs.
