

Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War

Photos from the Past

Alexander H. Johnson

Alexander H. Johnson served at the age of 15 as the Drummer boy of the 54th Massachusetts. After the war, he was a member of both the Grand Army of the Republic Post #10 and a member of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War in Worcester, Massachusetts. He is frequently mentioned in a recent book entitled, We All Got History by Nick Salvatore. Alexander H. Johnson died in 1930. Photograph and information submitted by Alexander H. Johnson's great grandson, Richard Massey, Camp Secretary-Treasurer, Willie Grout Camp #25, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Worcester, Massachusetts.

Alexander H. Johnson

Alexander H. Johnson (circa 1898)