

Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War

Photos from the Past

Alexander James Nevel

Alexander James Nevel was born in 1843. He enlisted and was mustered as a Private on December 4, 1862 into Company F, 143rd Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. He was wounded (severe wound in left arm, amputated) on June 25, 1864 at Petersburg, Virginia . He was discharged for wounds on March 29, 1865. He died in 1887. Photograph and information submitted by Alexander James Nevel's great great grandnephew, Bill Davenport .

Alexander James Nevel