

Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War

Photos from the Past

Charles W. Sprague

Charles Warren Sprague was a 28 year old Machinist from Norton, Massachusetts when he enlisted on September 19 and was mustered in on September 21, 1862 into Company F, 4th Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry. He was mustered out of service on August 28, 1863 at Camp Hooker, Lakeville, Massachusetts. Charles Warren Sprague died on September 25, 1890 and is buried in the Norton Common Cemetery in Norton, Bristol, Massachusetts.

Information and photograph provided by Charles Sprague's great great grandson, Charles W. Sprague.

Charles W. Sprague