The memorial monument standing in the public square had its origin in the vote of the citizens' meeting June 7, 1864, already quoted. It is composed of a base in two members, of hammered granite, square in section, surmounted by a polished granite pedestal, upon which stands a draped female figure in white marble, representing Memory in the act of strewing flowers upon the names below. Upon the south face of the pedestal is the inscription:—

HARVARD ERECTS THIS MONUMENT IN GRATEFUL REMEMBRANCE OF HER SOLDIERS WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES TO THEIR COUNTRY IN THE WAR FOR THE DEFENCE OF THE UNION.

Below this crossed swords are chiseled above the dates 1861-1865. On the other three faces are the names of fifteen of the soldiers who died for Harvard in the war:—

The cost of the monument, including foundations, was $1208.19. It was originally proposed to place it in the burial ground, but in 1888 the town authorized its present location. Among contributions to the fund for the erection of this monument was the sum of $88.60 from the ladies, the proceeds of an art exhibition October 29, 1885. It was dedicated with appropriate ceremonial on Memorial Day, 1888, under the direction of Post 48 of the Grand Army of the Republic
