DESCRIPTION OF MONUMENT.

THE

Monument

is of Quincy granite, and rises to the height of twenty-five feet, resting on a foundation of granite blocks, eight feet square and five feet deep. On the four sides of the die of the pedestal are cut four panels, in which are set four shield shaped tablets, of the best of white Italian marble, on which are inscribed the names of the ninety-nine deceased patriot soldiers of Weymouth. On the four tympani of the die of the pedestal are the following devices and mottoes:—
On the East side, "They Died for their Country."—"1861 to 1865."
On the South side, two Sabres crossed.
On the West side, "Weymouth to her Heroes."—"Erected 1868."
On the North side, two Cannons crossed.
On the shaft of the Monument are four shields. The one on the East side contains a Wreath; on the South side the Stars and Stripes; on the West side the letters U. S., in monogram; and on the North side thirteen Stars. The mottoes are raised letters, and the devices also raised.
The shaft is a square tapering column.

In the warrant for a legal town meeting, held in December, 1865, soon after the close of the war, Article Seven reads as follows:—
“ At the request of Col. B. F. Pratt and others, to see if the town will take any action in regard to erecting a monument to the memory of those soldiers from this town who died in the service of their country, during the late war.” And at the town meeting, Dec. 21, 1865, a committee of five was chosen, consisting of Col. Jas. L. Bates, Col. B. F. Pratt, Z. L. Bicknell, Nath'l Blanchard, Josiah Reed, to consider the matter, and report at the annual meeting in March, 1866.

At the annual meeting in March, 1866, the committee submitted the following report:—

“The committee appointed by the town, to take into consideration the subject of a monument for those who have died in their country's service, have the honor to submit the following report:

It is the solemn duty of a patriotic people to honor the dead who have fallen in its defence. A nation situated as is the United States, with no powerful nations upon its borders, and separated from them by thousands of miles of ocean, does not require large standing armies for its safety; but there are sometimes crises arising, when powerful armies are needed, and when they must be had. They must either spring from an ardent patriotism, or be bought for money. The history of our country shows, that patriotism is the true source of national honor, and the foundation of its defence. Hence it becomes our duty to foster a love of country, and to incite our youth to patriotic emotions by honoring the brave, who have died to preserve our liberties and magnify our glory.

In honoring the dead heroes of the recent war, we show our gratitude for their great sacrifices, and our just appreciation of their valor, and inspire in our youth a glorious emulation to imitate their virtues, and to be as ready to strike for their country, when her welfare is imperilled. Seeing daily honored names that are bequeathed to posterity on enduring monuments,—knowing that their history is in a Nation's eyes,—they are taught to feel that it is more glorious to die for one's country, than to go down to peaceful graves and be forgotten.

Your Committee, after due consideration of the subject, on account of the peculiar location of the several villages of the town, and the want of a proper centre, recommend an appropriation of five thousand dollars, to build four monuments, one for each village.

There was a difference of opinion as to the division of this appropriation, and the Committee decided to submit it in this form, leaving it for the town to decide how it should be distributed, provided the appropriation should be made.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by Post 40, Grand Army of the Republic:—

Whereas, The patriotic people of Weymouth, by appropriation, and of North Weymouth, by vote, have caused to be erected in North Weymouth Cemetery a suitable Monument to perpetuate the memory of the gallant dead, our compansions in arms, who nobly sacrificed their lives to sustain the Union and the Constitution, that Justice and Liberty might be established, and life, peace, and the pursuit of happiness, forever be the common heritage; therefore

Resolved, That we tender our most grateful thanks to our fellow citizens, for the liberality, public spirit, and patriotism, they have manifested, in voting appropriation to erect a monument, that the deeds of the heroic men whose memory it consecrates, might be forever perpetuated.

Resolved, That we hereby express to the Monument Committee our appreciation of their zeal and energy in prosecuting the work, and of their signal success in the completed structure; and also our obligations for their courtesy in consulting the wishes of the soldiers, and the friends of our deceased comrades, in regard to the designs, and plans, for erecting the same, and the place of location.

Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be transmitted to the Monument Committee.

Post Commander, Post 40, G. A. R.,
