

1808

A TRIBUTE TO A LIFE CONSECRATED
TO THE BENEFITMENT OF HUMANITY.
IN 1839 SHE ESTABLISHED THE
RAISIN INSTITUTE OF LEARNING.
FEARLESSLY SHE COMBATED
SLAVERY WITH A FIRM RELIANCE ON DIVINE PROTECTION, DEVOTING TIME AND
MEANS TO ASSIST THOSE ESCAPING FROM BONDAGE.

At the Lenawee County Historical Museum, 110 E Church St, Adrian, MI 49221

This statue was originally erected by the local chapter of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in 1909 in front of the Adrian City Hall and served as a water fountain in memory of her temperance work. Sadly, the water fountain no longer works, but you can still see this impressive work of art designed by H. Barnicoat of Quincy, Massachusetts.
