PLEASANT GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY
AKA OLD CAMDEN POINT CEMETERY
AKA THE OLD CONFEDERATE CEMETERY
EST 1847

The Pleasant Grove Baptist Church was founded in 1844, also referred to at one time as the United Baptist Church at Pleasant Grove, and currently known as Camden Point Baptist Church. The first Church building was built on one acre on the north side of Pleasant Grove Road, purchased from John & Sally Freeman for $30.00 in 1846. Two acres across the road from the Church were then purchased from Archilles Jasper for $20.00 in February 1847 for this cemetery. There are at least 179 graves here, of which at least 138 of their headstones have been recovered. The first burial appears to have been in September 1845, before the cemetery was purchased, and the last burial in April 1914. The book, Gone and Forgotten Pleasant Grove Cemetery and Church, by Lu Durham, Irma Miller and Betty R. Murray, published in 1994 by the Platte County Historical Society, tells the history and genealogy of many of the pioneers buried here, as well as the history of the Church. Much of the information can also be found at findagrave.com.

A Civil War battle took place just south of here on July 13, 1864. Legend has it that Confederate soldiers were picnicking in the field when Union soldiers attacked, killing several then pillaging & setting fire to the town of Camden Point, burning over half of the houses. On November 1, 1871, at a dedication held with a parade and speeches, the citizens of Green Township raised the "Oldest Confederate Monument West of the Mississippi", and relocated six of the casualties from that battle to rest in the cemetery here.

Several groups and many individuals have donated countless hours of labor to reclaim and maintain this cemetery. We pray we can keep it from the ravages of time, for the honor of these people buried here.

Given in memory of Billie Everett & Loretta Larimer
