Forsyth Park N36°41.131 W93°06.033'

[Scales of Justice]

For over one hundred years this was the site of three Taney County Court Houses.

The first built by the early pioneers was destroyed during a Civil War battle, July 22, 1861.

The second burned December 19, 1885. The Third, and last was removed in 1952 to permit the building of Bull Shoals Lake.

This historical marker was presented to Taney County by William Quiring, in Memory of his wife, Mary Melissa Quiring, who loved this beautiful hill country. Erected 1953.
