Brother Walt,

Please find enclosed the following documents: Form CWM #61 Memorial Assessment Form, Form CWM #62 Memorial Fund Request, The Historical Marker Database 11th Michigan Infantry summary found at the Chickamauga National Military Park, and a cover letter from the National Park Partners CHA and invoice.

Since our last email exchange, I had a videoconference with an associate of NPP, Tricia Kings Mims, the Park Superintendent Brad Bennett, and Park Museum Manager Abbey Vander Sluis. The 2023 list of reparations for Park Monuments has been completed at the time of the call. I'm including the invoice in the packet. The call assured me of the process for donations and contributions to the NPS is auditable and recorded.

This being the case, March to the Sea Camp 135 is requesting a grant of funds earmarked for the repair of the Monument's Statue after the fact. Yet since National Park Partner's Jewell Fund is a revolving fund and is the source for NPS's repair list, is it still possible to designate a grant to replenish funds used for the 11th Michigan Monument as this Monument is from Camp 135's home county?

Please keep our Camp in mind with regards to the final decision.

Yours in Fraternity, Charity, and Loyalty,

Charles Worley, PDC

Topics. This historical marker is listed in this topic list: War, US Civil. A significant historical date for this entry is September 8, 1863.

Location. 34° 55.662' N, 85° 16.102' W. Marker is near Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, in Walker County. Marker can be reached from Vittetoe Road west of Vittetoe-Chickamauga Road when traveling west. This historical marker is located in the northwest section of the Chickamauga National Military Park, along a ridge called Snodgrass Hill. To view this historical marker drive to the parking area on Snodgrass Hill and the marker can be seen situated just east of the parking lot. According to the location information provided by the National Park Service, "This monument is located on Snodgrass Hill the Chickamauga Battlefield, map site #149". Touch for map. More about this marker. According to the description information provided by the National Park Service, the monument is, "4'6" x 4'6" x 15' high, monument features stone statue of officer on smooth-faced tapering pedestal, which rests on 2-step rock-faced base. Pedestal has inscription on front and state seal on back."

I used the "Chickamauga Battlefield" map, that I purchased at the Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park, Visitor Center, to determine both the marker number for this monument and the monument's location in relation to the rest of the park's monuments, markers, and tablets. According to the map it provides the, "numerical listing of all monuments, markers, and tablets on the Chickamauga Battlefield (using the Chick-Chatt NMP Monument Numbering System)."

Regarding 11th Michigan Infantry. It should be noted that this monument displays a bronze bas-relief artwork, that depicts the combat action that this regiment saw from this position.

When discussing Battlefield Monuments, the National Park Service offers this special insight: "Of special interest are bronze bas-relief plaques attached to many monuments. These depict battle scenes based on veterans' eyewitness accounts. Because there are no photographs of the fighting, these plaques are among the best visual records of the battles."

Dear Charles,

On behalf of the Board of Directors of National Park Partners of Chickamauga, Chattanooga, and Moccasin Bend, thank you for your interest in contributing to the 11th Michigan monument restoration at Chickamauga Battlefield. As the only nonprofit entity authorized to raise funds for Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park (CCNMP), our organization is privately funded through grants, event sponsorships and ticket sales, and donations from individuals, families, businesses, and civic groups from across the country.

In 2009, we received a grant from the Thomas W. Jewell Memorial Foundation to establish the Jewell Fund for Monument and Landscape Restoration. This restricted fund is used exclusively to augment CCNMP's capacity to restore historic integrity to more than 9,000 acres and 1,500 commemorative features throughout the park's six units. Donors to National Park Partners can specifically designate gifts restricted to the Jewell Fund, designed from the beginning as a revolving fund to support annual restoration projects and be continually refilled for the next year's projects.

Our Philanthropic Partnership Agreement with CCNMP requires an annual work plan to be developed, outlining the various projects and programs that NPP will support financially. At least one monument and/or landscape restoration project is identified in the work plan each year for payment through the Jewell Fund. The 11th Michigan monument restoration is one such project, identified in the 2022 work plan. The Northern Stone Carving Company, based in Minneapolis, MN began work on a series of Michigan monuments, including the 11th Michigan, in 2022 and the work was completed in November 2023. National Park Partners paid these contractors directly on behalf of the National Park Service (see attached invoice) through the restricted Jewell Fund. Donations received to support the 11th Michigan monument restoration are put back into the Jewell Fund and will support future projects identified in future work plans.

I hope this information clarifies how National Park Partners supports CCNMP in maintaining historic integrity to America's first National Military Park. We are proud to be part of honoring the vision of the Civil War veterans who designed the park to be a historically accurate portrayal of the battle and a place to reflect and remember those who fought during that sad chapter of our history. Please don't hesitate to reach out to me or Superintendent Bennett if you require anything further.

Warmest regards,

Tricia King Mims
Executive Director
