UPDATE ON BUSCH CANNONS AND MARKER

Two cannons owned by the Busch Family's and one historical marker created as an interpretation marker by the National Park Service have been moved as of 2017 from U.S. Grant National Historic Site (also known as White Haven) and moved to Grant's Farm and placed just to the side of the log cabin Grant built by hand.

The coordinates of the markers are 38.546654, -90.350345

According to the NPS, the cannons were loaned to them and now they are loaning the marker to the family. It seems that perhaps in 6 or 7 years time the marker and cannons will be moved back to the historic site or just the marker and the cannons will remain at Grant's Farm. NPS is hoping they will be gifted sometime.
