My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing,
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountainside
Let freedom ring!

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free, thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Our fathers' God, to thee,
Author of liberty, to thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.

OPENING REMARKS

At The Grave

Commander Mark Coplin

Chaplain: “As we remember Seaman August Moreau, let us cherish his example as a patriot and defender of those principles he believed to be right. Let us forget his failings, for he was human, remembering only his virtues. Let us so live that when that time shall come those we may leave behind may say above our graves.

“Hear lies the body of a true hearted, brave and earnest defender of the Republic!”
