just says "Class of 1915" but this probably marks some entrenchments on the grounds of the college. The DUV said there were markers of an entrenchment in their 1960s survey.

Monuments of Sep 2009

Cannons in Greene County

In 1870, Congressman S.H. (Pony) Boyd (late Colonel of the 24th Missouri Infantry) introduced and passed a joint resolution in Congress "directing the (US) Secretary of War to place at the disposal of the judges of the county court of the county of Greene, State of Missouri, eight captured twelve-pounder guns, of obsolete pattern, now condemned, and in store at the Rock Island arsenal (Ill), to be placed in Franklin Square, North Springfield, Missouri, around the monument to be erected to the memory of the late Brigadier General Nathaniel Lyon, and the Federal forces who fell with him at the Battle of Wilson's Creek."

The plans for a monument fell through and the cannons were distributed to Walnut Grove, Ash Grove, Springfield and one to Drury College. A second one of these ended up at Drury College at a later date.

Today only 3 cannons are known to exist of these eight. The three surviving cannons are sister cannons, all being manufactured at the same Atlanta, GA, in 1863. They were all twelve pound Napoleon style and made of brass or bronze. They were sent to the Confederate Army of Tennessee during the summer of 1863.

Looks like it is marked "N23AB"
