Mr. Paul Leistriz
8553 Lowell St
St. Louis, MO 63147

Dear Mr. Leistriz:

The US Grant Camp has completed the assignment given to us regarding monuments. We will continue to look for other monuments and send those in as we find them.

We checked with the city of Kirkwood and did some extensive driving around, but we have not found a Jefferson Barracks, Monument near Kirkwood. Without additional information, it cannot be located.

On the monument in Springfield, MO, the Dr. T.J. Bailey Memorial to Soldiers, we have found a little additional information. The Veterans Administration lists the monument as being dedicated there in 1907, while a website claims it was erected in 1869. The earlier date appears to be correct as a postcard date stamped in 1906 clearly shows the monument. The information about the postmark came from the E-Bay auction description of it.

If our camp can be of service to this project in the future, please do not hesitate to call.

In Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty,

Walter E. Busch
