Marble Shaft Memorial

This 30 foot marble shaft includes names of Civil War soldiers from the region. Since the names are wearing off, there are two red granite monuments in back that have soldiers from all wars including about 290 CW soldiers. Also, there is a small separate monument for a Revolutionary War Veteran Charles Harry. This is a very nice setting in front of the Library. It is south of the business district. Photos taken 6/24/16 and 8/3/20. Also shown are two old undated photos - the colored one sent by Danny Krock and the last one sent by David Shedlock.
