Final Blue Grey Tribute

The famed Mt. Vernon, Ohio, SUVCW Fife and Drum Corps, headed by Col. Warfield W. Dorsey, led the last Civil War funeral procession in Houston, Texas, December 23, 1959. Lt. Col. Daniel F. Clancy, Columbus, Chief of Staff of the 1st Ohio Regt. SUVCW, was liaison officer for the "combined cperation" which saw 30 members of the Fife and Drum Corps and 25 Grey-clad members of the 2nd Kentucky Infantry flown to Texas and back for the Walter Williams rites. The Mt. Vernon unit, which played at the 1956 Duluth, Minn., funeral for the last Union Veteran, Comrade Woolson, was the official and only band at Houston, and led the procession.

Preservation and restoration are two terms which are continually facing us each day. Carrying out of these principles could very well determine our future.

We have read and heard of drives for financial and physical means for the preservation of lands adjacent to our Battlefields. Without the purchase and ruling hand of authority over such fields near Manassas, Antietam and Gettysburg, we will face the danger of losing the full view of those sacred soils. Congress authorized certain funds with limitations. Each year this action must be renewed beginning with the fiscal year. I urge you all to write your Congressmen requesting their support of this action. Do it now before it is too late.

Restoration also plays an important part of our heritage. Daily we face proposed highway construction in our towns and cities. Many community memorials erected to the memory of hometown men and boys, who served with the Grand Army of the Republic, were erected along these roads, which now must be widened to keep up with modern changes. Several times during the past few years, our support with letters to local officials has assisted in the relocation of these memorials to places of Recently this office received an example of what one of our Brothers accomplished in New York City. Past Camp Commander Bert Sack of Camp 26, located the statue of a Union Soldier holding his rifle, which was removed from the West Farms Soldier Cemetery by the Public Works Authority of New York.

Bro. Sack investigated the cause of removing the statue, located it in a warehouse in the Department of Public Works. Through subscriptions from the Sons of Union Veterans, Sons of Confederate Veterans and other veteran units and individuals. Bro. Sack raised enough money to repair and replace the 10 foot Union Soldier on its original granite base. On November 9th, Rededication Services were held with many military, veteran and civic organizations participating. The address was given by Dr. Daniel Cusack, Commander of the New York Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans.

With this issue of THE BANNER, you will receive your G. A. R. Memorial Fund contribution notice. No matter what contribution you remit. it will be appreciated. Each Brother, Camp and Department will be listed and reported at the National Encampment in Springfield, Ill. in August.

Perpetuation of the Grand Army of the Republic is our purpose. Failure to support this can endanger our future.

CHESTER S. SHRIVER. National Patriotic Instructor.

There is nothing wrong about having nothing to say, unless you say it out loud.

Hope for the best; get ready for the worst; and accept philosophically whatever comes.

Dedication Day

THE BANNER

(S. J. Res. 50)

With our loval friend, Senator Kenneth B. Keating again leading the way, it's up to us, my Brothers, to do our bit for Dedication Day, by getting letters in the mail immediately.

His bill bears the same number and identification as that of last year-S. J. Resolution 50. All that's needed now is your letter addressed to the Hon. James G. Eastland, Chairman Senate Committee on the Judiciary, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C. Just a short letter, concise and to the point, setting forth your desire that he and his committee will give Senator Keating's bill (S. J. Res. 50) their favorable consideration.

You will note that I am still plugging for short letters, as in these hectic days in Washington, it is the short letter that survives the toss into the waste basket. This is our year, Brothers, what with the Civil War Centennial. So, let's do it now, while the time will never be better, while the opportunity will never be greater than in the year 1960.

May I ask you then, to write that letter to the Hon, Mr. Eastland, and MAIL IT TODAY.

FRED E. COLWELL. National Legislative Chairman,

National President's Message

Your National President deeply appreciated the many expressions of good will and friendship received during the Holiday Season. I sincerely thank each and everyone for your greetings.

With the second National Orders, you will receive your reservation cards for the Abraham Lincoln Hotel, Springfield, Ill. where we will be holding our National Encampment, August 21-26, 1960. Plan on attending. Springfield is full of wonderful historical things to see. Stay a day or so longer and visit the many historical sites. You will receive an inspiration from them.

How are the Press Correspondents press books coming along? Full, I hope.

The National Patriotic Instructor and National Chief of Staff are anxiously awaiting your donations. Give generously.

The Membership Honor Roll is not growing as fast as it should. I humbly ask your cooperation in trying to secure new members, so that we might overcome some of the losses we have had.

I will be making my official visits in the next few months, and shall be looking forward to meeting many of the Sisters. Plan on class initiations for my visits if possible.

BEATRICE S. RIGGS. National President.

Hear one man before you answer, several before you decide.

75th ANNIVERSARY

On Feb. 6th, Gen. John F. Hartranft Camp No. 15 of Harrisburg, Pa., celebrated their 75th anniversary, which affair was also their 25th Annual Lincoln Banquet. Shown above left to right are: Roy C. Boughter, oldest member attending, who joined in 1913; Hon. Homer L. Kreider, Judge of Dauphin County; P. C. in C. John Runkle, Toastmaster and Chairman; P. C. in C. Richard R. Locke, Illinois, who stopped at Harrisurg on his way home from Washington, D. C., where he had attended the Coalition meeting. Commander-in-Chief Harold Arnold arrived too late to be included in the picture.

One hundred and thirty one persons attended, including representatives of all allied orders and many veteran organizations, as well as P. C. in C. Leroy Stoudt and Natl. Patr. Instr. Chester Shriver.

Judge Kreider who is in charge of naturalization in Dauphin County spoke of his work, and explained how careful the U.S. Government is now in screening applicants for citizenship and the steps taken in preparing these applicants to be useful citizens. He said "people today seem more grateful for the privilege of becoming citizens," and he attributes this to the fact that they appreciate getting away from the tyranny of the dictators, as our forefathers came to American to get away from oppression

General Order No. 3 Series 1959-1960

Headquarters
COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF
Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War
P. O. Box 41
Coventry, R. I.

1. Your Commander-in-Chief had the pleasure of participating in the ceremonies at the Lincoln Monument in Washington, D. C. on February 12 under the auspices of the District of Columbia Commandery, Military Order of the Loyal Legion. After the ceremonies we were the guest of the Loyal Legion at the Army and Navy Club for a luncheon where we were joined by Past Commander-in-Chief, U. S. Grant 3rd. It was also my pleasure to visit the headquarters of the Civil War Centennial Commission and observe its operations.

2. At this time I wish to thank the many Departments and Camps for their invitations to attend Lincoln Dinners, but it was impossible to attend all of these affairs, as a good many were held on the same night. I especially want to congratulate Camp 15 of Harrisburg on their 75th Anniversary, and may they have many more.

3. On Friday, April 15th, our Order will again mark the anniversary of the death of Abraham Lincoln by appropriate ceremonies at Lincoln's Tomb in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Springfield, Illinois. At that time the Military Order of the Loyal Legion will be our guests. Following the ceremonies there will be a luncheon and the guest speaker will be Lieutenant Governor John William Chapman of Illinois.

4. Your Centennial Committee has published a leastet called "The Civil War and You." This contains information concerning the Sons of Union Veterans and our activities in the Centennial. Any one may get a copy by contacting the Chairman of the Centennial Committee, William O. Fuller, Sr., 104 Middle St., New Bedford, Mass.

5. On March 15th, I will attend a class initiation of Keene, New Hampshire Camp No. 10. Candidates will be present from Keene and Portsmouth, N. H. as well as from Brattleboro and Bellows Falls, Vt. These energetic Camps are showing that it can be done.

6. I take this opportunity of reminding all Grand Army Highway Department Committees of a project that has been dormant for the past few years. A resolution was passed at the 74th Annual National Encampment in Cincinnati, Ohio that this committee supervise the U. S. Grant Highway, Route 20, which runs from Massachusetts to Oregon. Local legislation is needed to complete this project. The Department of Illinois is the only one where this has been accomplished. Who will be next?

HAROLD E. ARNOLD, Commander-in-Chief.

No army can withstand the strength of an idea whose time has come.

See New Salem An Historic Shrine

As the passing years add to the stature of Lincoln among the figures of men in history, so do they change the significance and importance of Lincoln's New Salem State Park among the historic shrines of America.

Infinite labor and endless research characterize the recreation of this village where young Lincoln clerked in a store, chopped wood, enlisted in the Black Hawk War, served as postmaster, deputy surveyor and legislator, failed in business, and met Ann Rutledge.

The Park, situated on a hill one hundred feet high, overlooks the Sangamon River valley. It was on this bluff in 1828 that James Rutledge and John Cameron erected their homes and the following year, after building their grist and saw mill on the river below, laid out the town of New Salem and started selling lots.

Strangely, the six years that Lincoln spent in New Salem almost completely encompass the town's brief history. The community was growing and thriving when Lincoln reached there in 1831, but in 1839, just two years after he had left for Springfield to practice law and advance himself in the fascinating maze of politics, the county seat was established at nearby Petersburg.

OMNIBUS

DR. CHESTER D. BRADLEY, Curator of Fort Monroe Casemate Museum, Fort Monroe, Virginia would like to get in touch with the family of F. B. Roads who was Secretary, Veterans Assoc. of the 3rd Penna. It remained in Union hands all throughout the war and served as a very important base for the Union Army and Navy. The 3rd Penna. Heavy Artillery garrisoned Fort Monroe from 1863 to 1865.

Mrs. Elizabeth Starr, dear Mother

We will both soon be in eternity. Let us meet in peace there and strive diligently to do our duty. My mission is on earth to do all the good I can until my end shall be. At home I am called Reverend J. H. Starr, here I am called Lieut. If the heart and conduct is right, all will be well. Fare the well, until we meet again in the Spirit land. I may be called before Charleston is taken. I die in the cause of liberty and my country.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT FETED

Approximately 125 guests and friends gathered in the Red Velvet Room of the Hotel Lafayette in Long Beach, Calif., recently to honor the National President of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Beatrice S. Riggs, of Upland, Calif.

Chairlady of the evening was Mrs. Irene Wohlgemuth, P.D.P. of Long Beach, who introduced the honored guests and visitors, as well as a most interesting program.

The Grand Army Badge

The badge is of bronze, made from cannons captured in battle during the Civil War, and is in a form of a five-pointed star, similar in design to the two hundred Medals of Honor, authorized by an act of Congress to be given to the soldiers and sailors most distinguished for meritorious and gallant conduct during the Civil War.

THE OBVERSE—in the center of the badge is the figure of the goddess of liberty, representing loyalty. On either side a soldier and a sailor clasping hands, representing fraternity, and two children receiving benediction and assurance of protection from the comrades, representing charity. On each side of the group is the National Flag and the Eagle, representing freedom, and the axe, or bundle of rods, or fasco, representing Union. In each point of the star is the insignia of the various branches of service—The Bugle for infantry, the Crossed Cannons for artillery, the Crossed Muskets for marines, the Crossed Sabers for Cavalry, and the Anchor for sailors. Over the central groups are the words "Grand Army of the Republic" and under "1861—Veterans—1866" commemorating the commencement and close of the rebellion and also the date of organization of the Order.

THE REVERSE SIDE represents a branch of laurel, the crown and reward of the brave, in each point of the star. The National Shield is in the center, surrounded by the twenty-four recognized Corps Badges, numerically arranged each on a keystone and all linked together, showing they are united and will guard and protect the shield of the nation. Around the center is a circle of stars representing the states of the union comprising the Grand Army of the Republic.

THE CLASP is comprised of the figure of an eagle with crossed cannon, and ammunition representing defense. The eagle with drawn sword hovering over, and always ready to protect from insults or dishonor, the National Flag, which is also the emblem and ribbon of the Order.

Centennial Activities and Events Already Planned

The Civil War Centennial Commission has prepared plans for a nationwide, five-year commemoration. To date, the following projects have been launched:

A National Advisory Council has been established that includes some 600 distinguished men and women scattered throughout the 50 States.

Two National Assemblies have been held which drew representatives from many of the nation's civic, patriotic and historical organizations. More than 300 persons from 32 states, representing 116 organizations attended the last Assembly held in Richmond, Virginia. The Third National Assembly has been scheduled for St. Louis, May 5-6, 1960.

We have assisted 40 States to establish their own Civil War Centennial Commissions to cooperate closely with the National Commission. Other States are planning similar action.

We have publicized the coming Centennial through a monthly newsletter, "100 YEARS AFTER," through 129 news releases regularly sent to 3,000 daily and weekly newspapers and other media, and through nationwide distribution of a brochure "Guide for the Observance of the Centennial of the Civil War." Our new booklet "Facts About the Civil War," has just been published and is in great demand.

We have prepared a chronology of 6,500 Civil War events, arranged both by sequence and by states.

We have established a Centennial Speakers' Bureau which has supplied speakers who have addressed no fewer than 214 audiences.

A 16mm., 35-minute film on the Centennial has been prepared for non-commercial screening before interested organizations. To date, the film has been shown to over fifty audiences. We have prepared a new script and hope to produce another 26-minute film to be shown during 1960.

We are working closely with the National Park Service and with state and local organizations in making concrete plans for re-enactments of battles and other Civil War events. The re-enactments scheduled for First Manassas, Antietam and Fort Sumter have been drafted on a full-scale authentic portrayal basis.
