88th Annual Meeting . . .

ST. LOUIS CONVENTION REPORT

It was hot and humid when we gathered in St. Louis Missouri, Aug. 17-21, but the hotel was comfortable, and the atmosphere was friendly and congenial.

After attending Church Services of their choice, each organization conducted registration of delegates on Sunday afternoon. The SUVCW registration was 83 — Auxiliary was 181 — Ladies of the G.A.R. was 140. Along with family and friends total attendance was well in excess of 400.

An impressive and inspiring Memorial Service was conducted at 3 P.M. on Sunday arranged by National Chaplains B. Franklin Lucas of the Sons and Mrs. Jessie Wells of the Auxiliary in the Boulevard Room of the Hotel Sheraton Jefferson.

The annual Revival of the G.A.R. Camp Fire was held on Sunday evening in the Ivory Room of the Hotel with P.C. in C. Lambert presiding, to a capacity audience from the three organizations. The principal address was given by Dr. Milton Carpenter. Music was furnished by the Military Airlift Command Band of Scott Air Force Base with Lt. Kenneth Green conducting. Distinguished guests included Paul E. Williams, representing the State of Missouri; Sam Louis, representing the City of St. Louis; Commander-in-chief Frank Heacock; Aux. Natl. Pres. Mrs. Irene Murphy; Ladies of the GAR Natl. Pres. Mrs. Erma Landis; and representatives from the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Woman's Relief Corps, Military Order of the Loyal Legion, and Dames of the Loyal Legion. A presentation of a Lincoln painting and volumes of the collected writings of Abraham Lincoln were presented to Sister M. Willibald, Librarian of St. Andrew's School by Commander-in-Chief Heacock. Rev. Joseph T. Shocklee asked the invocation as well as the benediction.

Colors at the Camp Fire were advanced and retired by the Military Department, SVR, shown above, under command of Col. Chester S. Shriver.

On Monday, there was a joint opening of the Sons and Auxiliary conventions conducted by the Chiefs of Staff, Mrs. Kathleen Runkle and C. Leroy Stoudt, after which each organization proceeded with their individual business meetings. On Monday evening, the annual dinner of the P. C. in C. and P. N. P. was held. Following this the Auxiliary conducted exemplification of the Ritual and initiated several new members. This was followed by the Auxiliary Courtesy Hour in the Ivory Room.

Tuesday saw business sessions during which time greetings were received from the following: Convention Committee who presented a beautiful basket of flowers; Natl. Pres. Irene Murphy and a delegation from the Auxiliary; Representatives from the Memorial Association, the W.R.C., the DUVCW, and the Aux. to United Spanish War Veterans; a delegation from the Ladies of the G.A.R. consisting of all the Past National Presidents attending their Encampment.

On Tuesday evening a delightful banquet and reception

There were no business sessions on Wednesday. During the day the Delegates thoroughly enjoyed a bus trip to Grant's Farm, which is maintained by Anheuser-Busch Inc. of St. Louis. All agreed that it was a delightful experience. On Wednesday evening an unusual and pleasing entertainment was provided in the Ivory Room through the courtesy and great talent of the Moushey family. Hazel, as "Dolly" will long be remembered for her performance. Russell and Mearl Moushey along with Lou proved to be talented performers. The Square Dancers performed brilliantly.

Thursday concluded the business sessions and saw election and installation of new officers, and the closing Council of Administration meetings.

Shown above is a group of officers of both the SUVCW and Auxiliary at St. Louis.

4. Your Commander-in-Chief is honored by your selection of him to serve you during the coming year. I accept the honor and the challenge with humility and with the sincere pledge to do all that is humanly possible to build upon the noteworthy accomplishments of my predecessors and to encourage the growth and development of our organization. I am proud and pleased to be a part of an organization whose principles and honorable and meaningful traditions fill one with genuine pride and grateful appreciation for the privilege of being associated with it and serving it. I am equally pleased to work with you, the officers and members, whose character, interests and efforts exemplify loyalty and respect for our great Nation and its glorious heritage, its magnificent flag, and its wonderful constitution.
5. It is my sincere hope that the spirit of devotion and sacrifice of our forefathers who wore the Union Blue, and who fought unselfishly and successfully to keep our great nation united, will continue to inspire us to do all that we can to increase our ranks, to strengthen our organization, and to fulfill our individual responsibilities as members and citizens willingly, and well. I am sure that there are countless men across the land who have the honor of possessing the same heritage as we, or who have the same genuine and sincere interest in perpetuating the memory of the Union Veterans, and the cause for which they fought and died. Let's leave no stone unturned in the effort to seek them out, and to let them know that they are not only welcome, but needed as members of our Order.
6. National Patriotic Instructor Edwin K. Kramer will need the help of each member, Camp and Department in reaching the goal of $1,200.00 proposed by the Council of Administration for the G.A.R. Memorial Fund for 1969-70. Your Commander-in-Chief urges full support and cooperation with Brother Kramer to enable him to attain this objective and to provide necessary funds for the financing of numerous projects in memory of the Union Veterans.
7. I sincerely hope that secretaries of all Camps will make certain that Department Secretaries have the accurate addresses of all members so that there will be no question about their receiving The Banner regularly and promptly. I feel confident that each officer and member shares my belief that The Banner ranks second to none in publications of its kind, and that the quality of its format and the full and complete information it contains consistently cause each one of us to be pleased and proud.
8. I offer congratulations and best wishes for a successful, harmonious and constructive year to Mrs. Florence M. Jansson, National President of the Auxiliary to Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, and to Mrs. Josie Kraecht, National President of the Ladies of the G.A.R., who were also elected at their respective national conventions in St. Louis. I pledge to both my full support and cooperation and express the hope that each of us will be able to serve our respective organizations effectively and productively. It is a happy coincidence that National President Jansson and I, who served as Department President and Department Commander in New Jersey in 1953-54, now have the mutual privilege of serving our respective National Organizations in 1969-70.

Excerpts . . .

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

A year ago we reported on the passage in Congress of the Uniform Holiday Act, Public Law 90-363. Under our system of dual responsibility that legislation will apply only to federal employees, installations and residents of the District of Columbia — At the national level Representative Martin B. McKneally of New York State has introduced HR 6247 which would restore Memorial Day to May 30 and Veterans Day to Nov. 11 by repealing a portion of the measure enacted by Congress last year. The bill has been referred to the House Judiciary Committee where it is expected hearings will be scheduled soon. Without a wave of public protest and indignation demanding a return to the traditional dates, it is difficult to see how the measure stands a realistic chance for passage. Nevertheless, those who feel strongly about this proposal — including your chairman — are urged to write Rep. McKneally to express your support on his position and to Rep. Manuel Celler to urge that hearings be slated in H.R. 6247 — As a substitute for personal contacts, brief and pointed but courteously written letters can be effective in expressing individual views known. — To help bridge a "communications gap" Western Union has devised a new service known as Personal Opinion Message. For 90 cents, Western Union will send a 15 word telegram to the office of the President, your Governor, Representative or Senator, or State Legislator and your signature and address will be included free. You need not even know your man's name. Western Union will look it up for you. To send a POM, you need only pick up the telephone. The 90 cents will be added to your telephone bill.

As this report is written, the controversy over the anti-ballistic missile program continues. — Your committee believes that our President — regardless of party — should be given the tools he believes necessary to carry out his responsibilities as the chief architect of our foreign policy. If the ABM represents such a tool — and we believe it does — our Congress should close ranks behind the President on this issue reserving its right, of course, to exercise surveillance over the execution of the program.

Recently Senator Barry Goldwater, in a Senate speech, made this observation: "Now that we have the industrial capacity to equal the Russians in space or in matters related to defense, there seems to be a nation-wide effort to make us feel guilty . . . Rather than deploring the existence of a military-industrial complex, I say we should thank heavens for it. It is the bubble under which our nation prospers. It is the armor which is unfortunately required in a world divided."

As members of a patriotic organization interested in preserving our nation's heritage on the one hand and in promoting her future on the other, we have a duty to be vigilant least well-meaning but misguided souls — and those with less honorable intentions — bargain away our hard won advantages and make the cause of a just peace even harder to attain.

Thos. L. W. Johnson, Chairman

MARY TODD LINCOLN

by George L. Cashman

In any close study of history, especially as it concerns prominent public individuals, one must inevitably come to the realization of the truth of Gresham's Law. This law, paraphrased, is "a good reputation is driven out by the bad." And, so it is with the Mary Todd Lincoln legend. A legend which incorporates distortion, half-truths and deliberate falsehoods, foisted upon an unsuspecting public by a vengeful character assassin, whose hatred of Mrs. Lincoln surpasses all understanding.

The malicious treatment accorded Mary Todd Lincoln before, during and after the White House years, is undoubtedly the blackest stain upon the pages of American history. Mary Lincoln was a woman of culture, charm, warmth and refinement. She was a loving wife and mother, and was responsible, to a large extent, for the success of her husband.

We have many published eye-witness reports with which to substantiate any claim that the Lincolns' domestic life was one of understanding and tranquility. The following is but one random sample of many accounts. "Mr. Lincoln's domestic relations were happy, and his devoted attachment to his home and family was always one of the marked traits of his personal character, in this quiet domestic happiness . . ."

Where gratitude should be shown to Mary Lincoln, we find condemnation and abuse. Her life was one of tragedy, she witnessed the deaths of three of her four sons, and the assassination of her husband. She had four brothers and four brothers-in-law who served the Confederacy, but her loyalty to her husband and the Union cannot be questioned. Her mind became clouded, but she was never insane, as some historians would have us believe.

It is true that Mary Lincoln was committed, as incompetent, to a private sanitarium at Batavia, Illinois, in 1875. As an inmate she was permitted complete freedom of movement, going wherever and whenever she chose, when accompanied by a nurse or a friend. Four months later she was paroled in the custody of her brother-in-law, Ninian Edwards of Springfield, in whose home she lived until her second trial in 1876, when she was adjudged sane and released. All of which would seem to create doubt that she was ever mentally deranged.

Shortly after her release, Mary Lincoln embarked for an extended sojourn in Southern France, where she remained until 1880. Her reason for going abroad was simply that having been branded with the stigma of insanity, she could not bear to face her friends.

On July 16, 1882, Mary Todd Lincoln, the woman who played a very large part in molding the destiny of the immortal Abraham Lincoln, died, in the quiet of the Edwards home, misunderstood, misquoted, misjudged and much maligned figure. Someday, Mary Lincoln may be awarded her proper niche in America history.

National Council convened at 2:00 P.M. and at 3:00 P.M. Memorial services in memory of departed members of the Auxiliary and Sons was held in the beautiful ball-room of the Hotel. The service was under the direction of the Chaplains of the two Organizations and was most impressive. A Camp-Fire was held on Sunday evening which was most enjoyable. Greetings were extended from the National President, Commander in Chief and the National President of the Ladies of the G.A.R. as well as representatives of the local and State governments. The speaker of the evening was most interesting and the entire program was enjoyed by all who attended.

Monday morning the conventions of the Sons and Auxiliary were officially opened at a joint affair which was under the direction of Auxiliary National Chief of Staff Kathleen Runkle and the Sons Chief of Staff, P. C. in C. Leroy Stoudt. The National President and Commander-in-Chief were escorted into the room and seated at the front of the room. Past National Presidents and Past Commanders in Chief as well as National Officers of both Organizations were escorted in, introduced and seated in the meeting room. The two presiding Officers spoke briefly welcoming all to their National Conventions and the members of the Sons then retired to their own meeting room for their business sessions.

The National President then called the meeting to order, conducted the official opening of the Auxiliary and then proceed with the business at hand. All National Officers were introduced as were the Past National Presidents, sitting Department Presidents of each Department and all appointed floor officers. Each was presented with a remembrance from the National President. Following the presentations the business of the convention was started. Reports of National Officers beginning with the National President were given. All of Monday and most of Tuesday was taken up with the reading of Officers reports, committee reports and the reports of the Departments.

The Monday afternoon session was interrupted briefly while we received Mr. C. G. Virgen of Jefferson Barracks Veterans Hospital in St. Louis. Mr. Virgen was there to receive our presentation made in memory of the Grand Army of the Republic. The amount of the presentation, $250.00, was in the form of a check presented to Mr. Virgen by our National Patriotic Instructor Catherine Winder. Mr. Virgen spoke briefly on the work of the hospital and expressed the appreciation of all at the hospital for the gift. Following Mr. Virgen's departure reports were continued until we recessed.

On Monday evening the annual banquet of the Past National Presidents and Past Commanders in Chief was held under the direction of P. N. P. Anita Selby. In the ballroom of the hotel the Exemplification of the Ritual was held by the members of the Pennsylvania Department. Following the exemplification a Courtesy Hour was held and at this time the various Departments and members made presentations of gifts to our National President, Commander in Chief and National Officers.

The first order of business of the afternoon session on Tuesday was nomination of officers. A listing of the newly elected officers appears in another part of this publication. Following nominations Greetings Committees received. The last greetings Committee to be received was from the Sons. The entire convention of the Sons came to our meeting in a body and we were delighted to receive them. Following their greetings the meeting was recessed until Thursday morning.

Tuesday evening a Banquet and Reception honoring Commander in Chief Heacock and National President Irene Murphy was held in the Ivory Room of the hotel. Arrangements were under the direction of Chief of Staff of the Auxiliary Kathleen Runkle with Chief of Staff P.C. and C. Leroy Stoudt acting as toastmaster. The banquet was most delightful and the reception most enjoyable. During the banquet the National President presented our love token of five hundred dollars to the Sons.

Wednesday was a free day. Most of the delegates thoroughly enjoyed a bus trip of the City of St. Louis and Grant's Farm owned and operated as a tourist attraction by Anheuser-Busch Inc. of St. Louis. This tour was most enjoyable. On Wednesday evening a Sing-a-Long and entertainment was given under the direction of P.N.P. Hazel Moushey and Lou Moushey. This evening was one of the most delightful evenings presented to the delegates. Sister and Brother Moushey and their wonderful family are a wonderfully talented family and deserve a great deal of credit for a truly fine convention.

Thursday morning the final business session of the convention was held. The report of our National Patriotic Instructor was received with much enthusiasm. Sister Winder turned over to the National Treasurer the sum of $1718.00. The National Chief of Staff Kathleen Runkle then read her report and realized the sum of $1926.37 after all expenses were paid which was also a very fine report. The last order of business for the convention was the Installation of the new National Officers. P.N.P. Margaret Schroeder and a staff of Officers from the New Jersey Department installed the new officers in a most impressive manner. Following the Installation National President Florence Jansson received her Commander in Chief Bro. Fred H. Combs Jr., also from New Jersey, who extended his personal greetings as well as the greetings of his Organization. The meeting of the convention was closed with the singing of The Battle Hymn of the Republic.

The old and new Council met following the close of the convention for the final audit. Delegates started leaving almost immediately and by Thursday evening many of the members had left the hotel and started for home. Those remaining left on Friday. All through the week many state dinners and club breakfasts and luncheons were held. Next year the National convention will be held in Miami Beach, Florida with the New Jersey Department acting as host and hostess.
