ANDREW TAYLOR

County Man Is 100 Years Old Monday

ANDREW Taylor, of southwest of Stillwater, celebrated his 100th birthday Monday.

Believed to be one of the oldest residents in the county—if not the oldest—Taylor may also be one of the state's oldest living citizens.

He observed his 100th birthday in good health, a daughter, who is one of his five living children, reported from his home Monday morning. Taylor is shown in the accompanying picture, which was taken in July, 1945. The picture was made in a B-17 bomber at the time war-weary airplanes were being stored at the north airport.

One daughter, Mrs. Nannie Cheatham, lives at Perkins, and two sons and another daughter live at the home southwest of Stillwater.

Andrew Taylor Dies At 100

Andrew Taylor, 100, probably the oldest Payne county resident, died at his home 10 miles southwest of Stillwater Saturday morning.

It was believed, too, that he was the last—or among the last—of the Civil war veterans in the county. Funeral services will be conducted Monday at 2:30 p.m. at the Strode Funeral home. Rev. J. F. Wick will officiate. Burial will be in Elm Grove cemetery with the Stillwater American Legion post conducting graveside services.

Friends may call at the funeral home until 10 a.m. Monday.

He was born in Uniontown, Ky., Dec. 16, 1846, the son of Andrew and Dorcas Ann Taylor. On Sept. 8, 1867, he was married to Susan Elizabeth Jackson in Missouri. Mrs. Taylor died Oct. 21, 1932. He served 11 months in the Civil war, Co. L., 2nd Missouri artillery.

He and his wife lived in Missouri following their marriage and in 1878 moved to Kansas, living near Fall Rivers. In April, 1890, they came to Oklahoma and settled on the homestead southwest of Stillwater where he had made his home. Taylor was a retired farmer and a member of the United Brethren church.

Survivors are three sons and two daughters: Mrs. Nannie Cheatham, Perkins; Len R. Taylor, Stillwater; Alva, W. T. and Mollie Taylor, of the home address. Three children, Mrs. Laura Cook, Art and G. E. Taylor, preceded him in death. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren, and 5 great-great grandchildren.

Clark Urges Unity

DES MOINES, Ia., March 29—(U.P.)—United States Attorney General Tom Clark told some 800 democrats gathered here Saturday night for the annual Jackson day dinner that it was their duty to support a world organization.
