Appreciation to the Commander-in-Chief's Special Committee on Awards

I extend my sincere appreciation to the members of the Commander-in-Chief's Special Committee on Awards for their diligence, impartiality, and devotion to the responsibilities entrusted to them.

The Committee carefully reviewed the nominations submitted for consideration, evaluated the qualifications and accomplishments of each nominee, and provided thoughtful recommendations reflecting the standards, traditions, and best interests of the Order.

The Committee's work required considerable time, careful deliberation, and sound judgment. Its members approached each nomination with fairness, discretion, and a sincere desire to ensure that exceptional service and achievement received appropriate recognition.

On behalf of the National Organization and all the Brothers of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, I thank the members of the Committee for their faithful service and for the important role they performed in this year's awards process.

Appreciation of the Order

On behalf of the National Organization and all the Brothers of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, I extend sincere congratulations and profound appreciation to each of these distinguished recipients.

Their accomplishments represent the finest traditions of Fraternity, Charity, and Loyalty. Through their leadership, service, recruitment, communication, education, ministry, preservation work, and devotion to their fellow Brothers and Sisters, they have strengthened our Camps, our Departments, our relationships with the Allied Orders, and our entire Order.

I also extend my heartfelt gratitude to every Brother who served the Order during the 2025–2026 administrative year. Whether serving in elected or appointed office, leading a committee, organizing a ceremony, recruiting a new member, maintaining a website, publishing a newsletter, caring for a memorial, researching a Union ancestor, supporting a fellow Brother, or quietly performing the daily work upon which our Order depends, each has contributed to our shared success.

No award can fully measure the value of faithful service. Every Brother and Sister who gives time, talent, and devotion to our mission helps preserve the memory of the soldiers, sailors, and Marines who defended the Union and ensures that their sacrifices will be remembered by future generations.

To all our award recipients, to the members of the Commander-in-Chief's Special Committee on Awards, and to all the Brothers and Sisters who support the work of this Order, please accept the gratitude of a proud and grateful Commander-in-Chief.
